National Executive Council Nomination Form

NEC is collectively responsible for

- ▶ the finances of the Association
- ▶ the membership database
- ▶ organising and overseeing BATOD's national meetings and conferences, supporting all four countries of the UK
- ▶ monitoring and updating the website and raising awareness of the Association's work through social media
- ▶ producing the Magazine
- ▶ oversight of the Journal
- ▶ updating publicity material, designing, and distributing Association literature where appropriate
- ▶ maintaining the Association archives
- ▶ fundraising and grant applications
- ▶ considering and developing audiological issues in relation to education
- ▶ liaising with national organisations and government departments
- ▶ dealing with current educational matters relating to deaf children and young people including curriculum issues, early years education, Ofsted, GCSE and other national examinations and IT developments
- ▶ all aspects of training of Teachers of Deaf Children and Young People including working with Teacher of the Deaf course providers and supporting the maintenance and development of the mandatory qualification
- ▶ pay and conditions of Teachers of Deaf Children and Young People
- ▶ developing and maintaining a mentoring scheme for QToDs
- ▶ other relevant topics identified by members and NEC
- ▶ liaising and collaborating with Teachers of Deaf Children and Young People in other countries

The NEC meets four times a year with at least two meetings being held online only and at least one will aim to be a hybrid format. All members undertake some work between meetings – for example preparing documents or contributing ideas and responses to consultations.
